

To enhance new-building process monitoring by Quality and Schedule Patrol in Japanese shipyards

From June 12th to 16th, two superintendents from the Company have paid a quality patrol for four of 25000DWT stainless steel chemical tanker newbuildings in Fukuoka and Kitanihon shipyards, they have communicated with Owner's site office and shipyard on schedule and ship's quality, and prepared for the sea trial and delivery coming in soon.

