

The Company continues to strengthen staff training

In the First half of 2017, the Company has invited marine law firm, Insurance company and internal experts to provide five training on Ship Insurance, Ship Financing, Accounting business and ship knowledge for the employees to know more basic knowledge on other majors and have a new understanding of company business characters. Human Resource Department indicated we should continue the training by means of this internal and external combination in the second half of the year. In the First half of 2017, the Company has invited marine law firm, Insurance company and internal experts to provide five training on Ship Insurance, Ship Financing, Accounting business and ship knowledge for the employees to know more basic knowledge on other majors and have a new understanding of company business characters. Human Resource Department indicated we should continue the training by means of this internal and external combination in the second half of the year.

